Sale of Graphite

StratMin (AIM: STGR), the graphite production and exploration company with assets in Madagascar, has agreed a first sale of 200 tonnes of graphite.

The Company has agreed to sell 200 tonnes of graphite production to Grafitbergbau Kaisersberg of Austria. The sale will consist of large flake graphite with a carbon content of +70% and a moisture content of under 5%. Fulfillment of this commitment has begun and will continue throughout September into October.

Manoli Yannaghas, Managing Director of Stratmin said "As we develop our production we do so in the knowledge that we are selling our end product to a respected industry player. This is an exciting step for Stratmin."
